1. Mayor Moore has appointed Sylvia Davis the new director of Midcity’s Convention and Visitors Bureau. Davis is 39 and lives on Vista Grande Road.

2. Get ready! Your water bill is about to go up nine-dollars-and-50-cents starting next month.

3. A report today by Midcity Supervisor Roger Hedgeman says Midcity paid nearly five-and-a-half-million-dollars to maintain city parks last year.

4. In the Midcity Midnight Walkathon...48-year-old Kenneth Warren finished first...second place goes to his son...22-year-old Mark Warren.

5. The J-Donald Washburn Foundation has awarded a 250-thousand-dollar grant to 56-year-old Midcity University music professor Zachary Scott. Scott’s research focuses on gifted teen-aged musicians.

6. Midcity’s Police Officer of the Year is 31-year-old David Muller.

7. Midcity Tax Assessor Sharon Ishida says the property tax payment deadline has been extended. The new due date is July 31st.

8. Midcity Police Lieutenant David Lopez says 45-year-old Monica Lisa Woodward of Canyon Lane died in the crash.

9. Midcity University Athletic Director Melissa Valenzuela says...in order to accommodate E-S-P-N...the kickoff has been moved to 6:05 p-m.

10. The concoction included the following: 15 gallons of ice cream...two pounds of almonds...32-ounces of whipped cream...and 10-pounds of bananas.

###