

- letters or the bag that contains the gas in a dirigible or balloon.
44. Fair means just and honest or impartial; beautiful and unblemished. A fair also can refer to a festival or carnival. Fare refers to the cost of a trip in a train, plane or taxi. Fare also can refer to a specific condition: She fared well in school.
45. Farther refers to physical distance: She walked farther than anyone. Further refers to an extension of time or degree: Police will investigate further into the murder.
46. Use fewer when writing about a number of individual items. Use less when referring to bulk, amount, sum, time or concept: The school has fewer than 1,000 students. She has less money than the other students.
47. A fiancé is a man engaged to be married. A fiancee is a woman engaged to be married.
48. A foreword is an introductory statement or remark at the beginning of a speech or book. Forward pertains to motion; advancing toward. Someone who is forward is bold or presumptuous.
49. Fourth refers to a quarter of something or to the fourth in a series. Forth means forward, away from a place, or onward in time, order or a series.
50. Foul means someone or something is stinking or loathsome; wicked or obscene; stormy or unfavorable. Foul also means not according to the rules. Fowl refers to any species of bird.
51. One hangs a picture, a criminal or oneself. Hanged is used for past tense or the passive voice when referring to executions or suicides. Hung is used to describe the hanging of objects, such as pictures.
52. To imply means to suggest, signify or mean. To infer means to draw a conclusion from something that has been said.
53. To incite means to stimulate or promote; to arouse a mob. Insight means understanding, especially through intuition.
54. It's is the contraction for "it is." Its is the possessive form of belonging to or done by it.
55. Generally, lay means to put or place, and it requires a direct object. Lie means to recline and does not take a direct object.
56. Liabe means to be legally bound or responsible. Libel is any false and malicious statement, picture or other printed material that unjustly damages a person's reputation. Likely is an adjective meaning credible or probable; or suitable or promising.
57. Loose means free, not confined or restrained. Lose means to be unable to find, keep or maintain.
58. A marshal is a military or court officer or a law enforcement officer with duties similar to those of a sheriff. Marshall is the name of some people and a group of islands in the Pacific Ocean.
59. A medium is a means of communication that reaches the general public. Media is the plural form of medium.
60. A miner is a person whose work is digging coal or other minerals in a mine. A minor is someone who is under full legal age. As an adjective, minor can mean lesser in size or importance.
61. Moral is the opposite of immoral; it involves an ethical judgment or principle; right conduct or behavior. Morale refers to a mental condition, such as an individual or group's cheerfulness, confidence or enthusiasm.
62. Naval pertains to a navy and its ships and personnel. A navel is a bellybutton.
63. An ordinance is a governmental statute or regulation. Ordinance pertains to military weapons and hardware.
64. A pedal is a lever operated by foot. Peddle means to go from place to place selling small items.
65. Use person when referring to an individual. Use people when referring to more than one individual. Use persons only in a direct quote or as part of an organization's title.
66. Personal means private or individual, or involving human beings. Personnel are people employed in an organization.
67. A phenomenon is any fact or experience that is unusual or can be explained by science. Phenomena is the plural form of phenomenon.
68. A plague is a deadly epidemic disease or anything that afflicts or troubles. A plaque is a wall tablet commemorating or identifying something.