ARMY OF C OF C STUDENTS TO CLEAN DOWNTOWN APRIL 21
New Adopt-A-Street Program Targets 15 City Streets

A cleaner downtown Charleston is the goal of more than 600 College of Charleston students participating in an ambitious new Adopt-A-Street program.

On the morning of Saturday, April 21, students armed with brooms, rakes and trash bags will storm downtown streets. Under the direction of the school’s Student Government Association 18 CofC organizations have signed on, with more groups and community volunteers being sought.

“CofC students don’t take the beauty and history of downtown Charleston for granted,” SGA president Holly Holloway said. “We want to do our part to maintain and spruce up this special environment we get to live in during our college lives.”

Streets to be swept Saturday will be: Calhoun, Coming, King, Vanderhorst, Smith, Liberty, Smith, Hassle, Warren, St. Philip, Pitt, Bull, Montagu, Meeting and Wentworth.

Participating C of C groups include the Greek Affairs Council (consisting of 12 fraternities and sororities), the Resident Halls Association, Student Senate, Criminal Justice Club, ROTC, the Public Relations Student Society of America, and the Women’s Caucus.

Individuals and groups wanting to participate on this and future projects are encouraged to call the Student Government Association at 953-1111, go to www.cofcsga.edu, or attend a planning meeting. These are held every Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Room 210 of the Stern Student Center on George Street.

College of Charleston students annually contribute 10,000 hours of volunteer service to the community with faculty contributing several thousand more hours of community service.
